DETAILED ACTION

Notice to Applicant

1. This communication is in response to the Request for Continued Examination (RCE) filed 2/16/07. Claims 19, 22-25, and 36 remain pending.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 19, 22-25, and 36 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 19, 22-25, and 36, now renumbered as claims 1-6 respectively, are directed to a method/system for processing a request for a transaction over a computer network.

The closest prior art of record, Basch et al. (6,119,103), French et al. (US 6,282,658 B2), and Jobber et al. ("The Prediction of Industrial Mail-Survey Response Rates") teach receiving a request for a transaction, generating a transaction score, terminating the transaction, proceeding with the request for a transaction, obtaining additional data from a customer, and predicting response rates of surveys.

However, the closest prior art of record does not teach or fairly suggest that obtaining the additional data comprises determining the probability of non-attrited fulfillment of the transaction after presentment of a follow-up question set based on a metric for the value of additional data, using information provided by the question set, the transaction information, and the customer's profile data, and said determining the probability based on a likelihood that the customer will terminate the transaction if the customer is presented with the follow-up question set.

In light of Applicant's specification at p. 9, lines 12-13, the Examiner interprets the "proceeding with the request for a transaction" step to mean that the request is fulfilled.

Dependent claims 22-25 (now renumbered as claims 2-5) incorporate the allowable subject matter of independent claim 19 (now renumbered as claim 1), through dependency, and are also allowable for the same reasons.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
